

NEWARK POLICE DIVISION CONSENT DECREE & PLANNING DIVISION

MEETING SURVE/FEEDBACK SUMMARY

Discussion on the NPD Seventh Status Report

Monday December 9, 2019 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Waterfront Sports Arts and Entertainment Center,
2 Grafton Ave Newark, NJ.

This report provides a summary of community feedback concerning the Newark Police Division's (NPD) Consent Decree Seventh Status Report received at the December 9, 2019 at the CommUNITY & Cops meeting held at the Waterfront Sports Arts and Entertainment Center. The community feedback received from this meeting is attached to this memorandum.

Community Members were generally, very satisfied with the meeting and would attend this meeting again, in the future. Community members expressed a concern for their community and appreciated the opportunity to ask questions and receive updated information. Community members expressed NPD could do a better job of advertising upcoming meeting to get the most community members involved.

Community members expressed hearing about the meeting via email and by members of the NPD. Some community members expressed the meeting was too long however generally they expressed the meeting was about right in length. Community members requested the evening presentation be made publicly available.

NPD response:

NPD is currently exploring other options of getting the word out including the use of live streaming and a new YouTube channel. The presentation was posted to the website. (www.npdconsentdecree.org)
